OUR STORY

Our Story

Old School began in a Stellenbosch dorm room in 2019.

Sparked by two brothers chasing the perfect vintage South African rugby jersey. One post on social media ignited a movement, and a brand was born. As our community grew, so did the vision.

Enter Old School Bespoke: crafted to meet a new demand; timeless, custom garments that honours heritage while reflecting the identity of each business we work with.

From classic sports silhouettes to tailored corporate apparel, every piece is designed with intention and built to last. Old School Bespoke is for businesses and brands who value quality, authenticity, and a damn good fit.

This isn't just merchandise. It's a brand building asset - custom-crafted, and made to make your brand look (and feel) its best.
